LIFELONG LEARNING

Promoting Lifelong Learning as a continuous, collaborative, self-directed and everlasting aspect of one's life has emerged as a major global educational challenge. Meeting this challenge will require changes in the way teachers teach and learners learn. Teachers take on the role of a facilitator and cheerleader in order for learners to take more responsibility for setting goals, identifying resources for learning and reflecting on and evaluating their learning. In these workshop sessions educators will learn strategies to increase students' thirst for knowledge.
